A letter of invitation for long-term participation in the Technion (Hebrew)

The letter should be signed by the host and include a list of publications, a curriculum vitae, and approval from the academic council.

Date: __________________________

Signature of the Dean: __________________________

Approval: __________________________

Duration: __________________________

Total: __________________________

Travel: __________________________

Total: __________________________

Approval: __________________________

Date: __________________________

Signature: __________________________